

Colorín Colorado's New Immigration Guide: Feedback from Our Partners & Audience

From partners and friends of the project

What an amazing resource! I have never seen anything so comprehensive, and I can't wait to share it with my colleagues around the country. Thank you for letting me be a small piece of your work.

- Dr. Lisa Peterson, LSSP, NCSP, School Psychologist, Dallas, TX Independent School District

This will undoubtedly serve as an excellent resource for educators and allies working to support immigrant students and families.

- César Moreno Pérez, American Federation of Teachers

Once again, there's a great and must-read guide from Colorín Colorado that will contribute to the success of so many ELs and their families. Bravo!

- Dr. Debbie Zacarian, Ed.D.

Excellent resource on how immigration issues impact students by Colorín Colorado.

Colorín Colorado has another excellent guide to family engagement.

Relationships (with immigrant families) matter. Thank you, Colorín Colorado.

This guide is amazing! I can't tell you how resourceful it has been for me...in my new coaching position. I continue to reference it and share. Thank you!

This guide by @ColorinColorado has some great ideas on how early childhood programs can support young children in immigrant families. Well done!
